

CITY OF BURBANK

SOLID WASTE UTILITY WORKER

DEFINITION

Under direction, to perform work involved in the maintenance, repair, delivery, and removal of refuse and recyclable materials containers and related equipment; to fuel refuse collection trucks; to operate bin handling unit and various types of solid waste collection trucks as needed; and to do related work as required.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

Performs welding tasks in the repair of solid waste bins; operates bin handling unit and forklift; replaces casters, straightens bin lids and bin bodies; removes usable parts from bins to be scrapped; refuels solid waste collection trucks; delivers and removes bins from accounts as needed; operates various types of solid waste collection trucks including front loader, side loader, rear loader, and automated vehicle to collect refuse and recyclable materials missed on scheduled routes; may direct the work of assigned personnel.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Employment Standards:

- Knowledge of - methods, equipment, materials, and terminology of the welding trade; traffic laws involved in equipment operations; safe operations of and safety precautions necessary in operating equipment, including bin handling unit and various types of solid waste collection trucks.
- Ability to - work from rough sketches and samples; communicate effectively orally and in writing; understand and carry out written and oral instructions; establish and maintain effective working relationships with supervisors, fellow employees, and the public.

Education/Training: Two years experience as an apprentice in metal forming and welding work or equivalent.

Special Conditions and Requirements: Employees in this classification are required by applicable laws and regulations to have respiratory protection and shall comply with the American National Standards Institute's requirements on Practices for Respiratory Protection.

License & Certificates: A valid California Class "B" driver's license or equivalent without air brake restriction at time of appointment.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION

None.